Safe Harbor Statement

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws related to the size, duration, mechanics, and funding of the repurchase program. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees. They reflect our current expectations and projections with respect to future events and are based on assumptions and estimates and subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to be materially different from expectations or results projected or implied by forward-looking statements. Among other things, we may terminate the repurchase plan early for various reasons, including a decision to allocate available cash to purposes other than the repurchase program, or the market price of our stock may increase to a level above the limit we have set for the repurchase plan, and in either case we may repurchase fewer shares and/or spend less money on repurchases than contemplated by the program. Also, there can be no assurances about any positive anticipated effects of the repurchase program.

For more information on the business risks we face and factors that could affect the outcome of forward-looking statements, refer to our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 21, 2022, in particular the sections of that document entitled "Risk Factors," "Forward-Looking Statements," and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," and other filings we make from time to time with the SEC. We undertake no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
